Deprived of two of their players, Riley, a pitcher, and Norton, shortstop, because of studies, the Army team arrived here Thursday somewhat disheartened. Lively practice on the Academy field brought back their "pep" and the "Graylegs," as the Middles call their rivals, will go into the game with the utmost confidence of winning.

The Middies have made big preparations for the game, and some new stunts will precede the contest. A color guard, composed of fourth class men, will march the navy blue and gold flag onto the errors behind him. Carroll was in excellent form, allowing only three hits, two of which were to the infield.

Walter, Moreland, Carroll, and Broome each made four hits. C. Porter made two of the three hits secured off Carroll's delivery. Score:
